Dear Hiring Team,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Restaurant Performance Standards Assessor (RPS) position at Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers. With over 10 years of experience in the restaurant and hospitality industry, including fine dining and catering, coupled with my background in education and operations, I possess a comprehensive understanding of the critical elements that contribute to exceptional standards, quality service, and brand integrity – skills I believe are directly applicable to this crucial role in upholding Raising Cane's commitment to craveable chicken finger meals and excellent operations.

Throughout my extensive experience in the restaurant and hospitality sector, I have developed a keen eye for detail and a deep understanding of the importance of maintaining high standards in all aspects of operations, from food safety and cleanliness to customer experience. My time in fine dining and catering has instilled in me the necessity of meticulous attention to detail and a commitment to exceeding guest expectations.

Complementing this practical experience, my background in education has honed my ability to evaluate performance against set standards and communicate findings effectively. For instance, as a Reading Specialist, I conducted thorough evaluations of learning programs to measure their effectiveness and identify areas for improvement. This analytical approach to assessment aligns well with the responsibilities of the RPS Assessor in measuring performance against detailed standards and delivering comprehensive results.

My operational experience further underscores my ability to understand and maintain operational standards. This, combined with my direct experience within the restaurant and hospitality industry, provides me with a strong foundation for assessing and supporting Raising Cane's commitment to quality and brand protection.

I am a self-driven and organized individual capable of managing multiple priorities and learning new systems quickly. I am particularly drawn to Raising Cane's ONE LOVE® philosophy and its focus on quality and standards. I am eager to leverage my diverse background to contribute to maintaining the highest levels of performance across your restaurants.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the opportunity to discuss how my qualifications can benefit Raising Cane's.

Sincerely,

William V. DeMorris IV
